Guía Rápida de Gramática Inglés — Nivel A2 (CEFR)

Estructuras gramaticales del nivel A2: pasado, futuro, comparaciones y modales esenciales para expresarte con más fluidez en situaciones cotidianas.

1. Past Simple (pasado simple)

Se usa para acciones terminadas en un momento específico del pasado.

Verbo TO BE en pasado

Pronombre	Afirmativo	Negativo
I / He / She / It	was	wasn't
You / We / They	were	weren't

Ej: She was tired. / They weren't at home. / Were you at the party?

Verbos regulares (+ed)

Ej: work → worked | play → played | study → studied (consonante+y → ied)

Verbos irregulares (formas fijas que se memorizan)

Base	Pasado	Traducción
go	went	ir
have	had	tener
do	did	hacer
see	saw	ver
eat	ate	comer
make	made	hacer/fabricar
buy	bought	comprar
come	came	venir
take	took	tomar
get	got	obtener/llegar

Negativo y pregunta

Ej: I didn't go to the party. / Did you see that movie? / Did she work yesterday?

2. Past Continuous (pasado continuo)

Acción en progreso en un momento del pasado. Estructura: was/were + verbo-ING

Ej: I was studying at 8pm. / They were watching TV when I arrived.

■ Se usa mucho junto al past simple para mostrar una acción interrumpida por otra: 'I was sleeping WHEN the phone rang.'

3. Futuro: GOING TO y WILL

BE GOING TO — planes e intenciones

Ej: I am going to travel next month. / She isn't going to come. / Are you going to study tonight?

WILL — predicciones, decisiones espontáneas, promesas

Ej: It will rain tomorrow. / I will help you. / I won't (will not) be late.

■ Usa GOING TO para planes ya decididos y WILL para decisiones del momento o predicciones generales.

4. Comparativos y superlativos

Tipo de adjetivo	Comparativo	Superlativo
Corto (1 sílaba): tall	taller than	the tallest
Termina en -y: happy	happier than	the happiest
Largo (2+ sílabas): expensive	more expensive than	the most expensive
Irregular: good	better than	the best
Irregular: bad	worse than	the worst

Ej: This car is faster than that one. / She is the most intelligent student in the class.

Ej: as...as (igualdad): He is as tall as his brother.

5. Present Perfect (introducción)

Conecta el pasado con el presente. Estructura: have/has + participio pasado (verbo-ed / irregular)

Ej: I have visited Paris. / She has never eaten sushi. / Have you finished your homework?

■ Palabras clave: already, just, never, ever, yet, since, for. Ej: I have already eaten. / Have you ever been to Brazil?

6. Verbos modales: SHOULD, MUST, HAVE TO

Modal	Uso	Ejemplo
should	consejo/recomendación	You should study more.
shouldn't	consejo negativo	You shouldn't smoke.

must	obligación fuerte/regla	You must wear a seatbelt.
have to / has to	obligación (externa)	I have to work on Saturday.
don't have to	no es necesario	You don't have to come if you're busy.
mustn't	prohibición	You mustn't park here.

7. Adverbios de modo y frecuencia

Los adverbios de modo generalmente se forman agregando -ly al adjetivo.

Ej: quick → quickly | careful → carefully | happy → happily | good → well (irregular)

Los adverbios de frecuencia (always, usually, often, sometimes, never) van antes del verbo principal pero después del verbo to be.

Ej: She always arrives early. / He is never late.

8. Cuantificadores: some, any, much, many, a lot of

Cuantificador	Uso	Ejemplo
some	afirmativo (contables/incontables)	I have some money.
any	negativo y preguntas	I don't have any money. / Do you have any friends?
much	incontables (preguntas/negativo)	How much time do we have?
many	contables (preguntas/negativo)	How many books do you have?
a lot of / lots of	afirmativo, cantidad grande	She has a lot of friends.
a little / a few	cantidad pequeña (incont./cont.)	I have a little time. / a few apples.

9. Preposiciones de movimiento

Ej: to (hacia) - from (desde) - into (hacia dentro) - out of (hacia fuera) - through (a través de) - across (al otro lado) - along (a lo largo de)

Ej: She walked into the room. / He ran across the street.

10. Verbo + -ING vs Verbo + TO + infinitivo

Algunos verbos van seguidos de gerundio (-ing) y otros de infinitivo (to + verbo).

+ -ing	+ to + infinitivo
like, love, enjoy, hate	want, need, decide, plan
I enjoy reading books.	I want to travel abroad.
She hates waiting.	They decided to leave early.
