Guía Rápida de Gramática Inglés — Nivel B2 (CEFR)

Estructuras avanzadas de B2: tercer condicional, condicionales mixtos, voz pasiva avanzada, inversión, causativos y modales en pasado para un inglés más preciso y natural.

1. Third Conditional y Mixed Conditionals

Third Conditional — situaciones hipotéticas en el pasado (no ocurrieron)

If + past perfect, + would have + participio

Ej: If I had studied harder, I would have passed the exam. (No estudié lo suficiente y no pasé el examen)

Mixed Conditionals — combinan tiempos para condiciones y resultados distintos

Ej: If I had taken that job, I would be rich now. (pasado → presente)

Ej: If she were more organized, she would have finished on time. (presente → pasado)

■ El tercer condicional habla de un pasado que no puede cambiarse; siempre implica arrepentimiento o una situación contraria a la realidad.

2. WISH / IF ONLY (deseos y arrepentimientos)

Uso	Estructura	Ejemplo
Deseo sobre el presente	wish + past simple	I wish I had more free time.
Deseo sobre el pasado	wish + past perfect	I wish I had studied medicine.
Queja/deseo de cambio	wish + would + verbo	I wish you would stop smoking.

Ej: If only I had brought my umbrella! / I wish I could speak Japanese.

3. Voz pasiva avanzada

Con verbos modales

Ej: The report must be finished by Friday. / The problem could be solved easily.

Con verbos de reporte (it is said / believed / thought that...)

Ej: It is believed that the painting is over 300 years old. / He is said to be the best player in the league.

Have/Get something done (causativo)

Se usa cuando alguien más hace algo por nosotros. Estructura: have/get + objeto + participio

Ej: I had my car repaired. / She is getting her hair cut tomorrow.

4. Future Perfect y Future Continuous

Future Perfect — acción terminada antes de un punto futuro

will have + participio pasado

Ej: By 2030, I will have finished my degree.

Future Continuous — acción en progreso en un momento futuro

will be + verbo-ing

Ej: This time next week, I will be traveling to Europe.

5. Modales en pasado: should have, must have, could have

Modal + have + participio	Uso	Ejemplo
should have / shouldn't have	crítica/arrepentimiento	You should have called me.
must have	deducción casi segura	She must have forgotten her keys.
might/could have	posibilidad en el pasado	He could have missed the bus.
can't have	casi imposible	They can't have arrived already.

6. Inversión para énfasis (estilo formal)

Al colocar adverbios negativos o restrictivos al inicio, se invierte el orden sujeto-verbo.

Ej: Never have I seen such a beautiful place. / Rarely does she arrive late. / Not only did he apologize, but he also brought flowers.

■ Esta estructura es común en discursos formales, escritura académica y literatura; úsala para dar énfasis dramático.

7. Cleft Sentences — oraciones enfáticas con IT / WHAT

Ej: It was John who broke the window. (énfasis en 'John')

Ej: What I need is a vacation. (énfasis en 'a vacation')

Ej: It is the lack of communication that causes most problems.

8. Participle Clauses (oraciones con participio)

Se usan para combinar ideas de forma más fluida y evitar repetir el sujeto.

Ej: Feeling tired, she decided to go to bed early. (= Because she felt tired...)

Ej: Having finished the report, he went home. (= After he had finished...)

Ej: Not knowing what to say, I stayed silent.

9. Estructuras verbales avanzadas

Estructura	Ejemplo
It's worth + -ing	It's worth visiting that museum.
can't help + -ing	I can't help laughing at his jokes.
would rather + verbo base	I would rather stay home tonight.
It's time + past simple	It's time we left.
be about to + verbo base	We are about to leave.

10. Conectores académicos y de contraste

Ej: Nonetheless / Nevertheless (sin embargo) — Furthermore / Moreover (además) — In contrast / By contrast (en contraste) — Provided that / As long as (siempre que) — Notwithstanding (a pesar de, formal)

■ En B2 empiezas a escribir textos argumentativos y formales: combina condicionales, inversión y conectores académicos para lograr un discurso más sofisticado.
